THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE G.CHANDRAIAH

WRIT PETITION NO:17187 OF 2007

ORDER: (Per the Honourable Smt.Justice T.Meenakumari)

The petitioner has filed the present writ petition seeking to declare the proceedings No:EA 2/11/2007, dated 11.7.2007 issued by the 1st respondent as arbitrary and illegal and set aside the same including the order of the tribunal in O.A.No:4023 of 2007, dated 26.7.2007 and direct the respondents to continue the petitioner under the jurisdiction of the 1st respondent by considering the proposal sent by the 1st respondent by letter No:EA.3/127/2005, dated 21.5.2007.

The petitioner is the applicant. She has filed O.A.4023 of 2007 seeking to declare the proceedings No:EA 2/11/2007, dated 11.7.2007 issued by the 1st respondent as arbitrary and illegal and set aside the same and direct the respondents to continue the petitioner under the jurisdiction of the 1st respondent by considering the proposal sent by the 1st respondent by letter No:EA.3/127, dated 21.5.2007. The tribunal having observed that the applicant has filed O.A.No:3953 of 1997 on an earlier occasion and therefore, she cannot maintain the present O.A for the self same relief, dismissed the O.A.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner-applicant and the learned G.P. for Social Welfare and the learned G.P. for Education.

Perused the material available on record as well as the order impugned.

There is no dispute that on an earlier occasion, the applicant has filed O.A.No:3953 of 2007 wherein an interim direction has been issued directing the respondents to maintain status quo as on 16th July, 2007. While things stand thus, the applicant has come forward with the present O.A. for the self same relief. In this background of the matter, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, We feel that the tribunal is justified in dismissing the O.A. on that ground. We see no merits in this writ petition and the same is accordingly liable to be dismissed.

In the result, this writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
